

E-MODE: Engage trainers in learning MODules and material creation” is a Grundtvig project aiming to equip adult educators with an integrated set of tools, methods and skills in designing, developing and evaluating their own modules and materials and using them in various interactive ways, so as to support them respond in their essential role as innovators of the flexible, community and ICT based learning environments of the modern European knowledge societies.

HAEA’s responsibilities:

- ✓ Review and Analysis of Adult Trainers’ Attitudes and Practices towards developing their own educational modules and material and using ICT in this process
- ✓ Elaboration of a pedagogically and technologically integrated set of methodologies for the development and use of educational modules and materials in various training delivery modes
- ✓ Development of educational material
- ✓ Training of trainers (face to face & e-learning)
- ✓ Creation of a virtual learning environment for the training of adult teachers and trainers
- ✓ Dissemination of Activities and Outcomes
- ✓ Exploitation and Impact analysis of results

Partners:

- KEK-INE/GSEE - Greece
- HAEA - Greece
- SQL Ltd - Greece
- Roskilde University - Denmark
- FSSK - Bulgaria
- Scienter Srl. – Italy
- Swedish TelePedagogic Knowledge Center - Sweden

- Izmir University of Economics – Turkey

Duration:

1.12.2008 – 30.11.2010 (24 months)

Programme Coordinator:

KEK-INE/GSEE

Funding:

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Website:

<http://www.emode-net.eu/project.html>